June 4 6:30 pm meeting at Taus Town Hall. Open to public, light refreshments served.

June 9 11 – 3 pm Come out to Dodge Preserve and take a hike with a Naturalist on amazing trails, learn about native perennials to plant in our area, explore the river and net some crayfish, grab some light snacks with your family, friends, or enjoy some time in quiet solitude! We will also have Dan Fager returning to spend the day with us.... He will be playing some tunes on his Indian flute and briefly touch on local history of Reifs Mills area. Watch Facebook, local newspapers, etc for updates on our event timeframe and/or contact Emily Endter at (emilyendter@yahoo.com) or Al Klingeisen (920)901-5166.

Plug 11006 Reifs Mills Rd, Whitelaw, WI 54247 into your GPS and watch for the Friends of Branch River signage for parking. It's about a 1/2 mile trail hike from the road down to the cabin.... we will have a wagon/4 wheelers to transport people there but you are more than welcome to walk, too! If you want to check out this beautiful gem of a property and our fun day, please let us know... having a rough head count is helpful but not mandatory.

This is a FREE event open to the public. We appreciate donations to help offset costs of our events. Please invite people you know who would enjoy an amazing day at Dodge Preserve with Friends of the Branch River Watershed! Please watch for updates on a timeframe of events on our Facebook page and/or contact Emily Endter at (920)323-3486 or Al Klingeisen at (920)901-5166 with questions, RVSP.
